VOL. IV. NO. 66.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Entries to the races of the Ontario Jockey Club have come in remarkably well, and the spring meeting, which opens on May 21, promises to be an excellent one.

There are thirty entries in the Queen's Plate, as far as numbers go, but of better quality than any in the history of the club. The fact that J. E. Seagram has won the race for seven years without a break, seems to frighten nobody. Mr. Seagram has five entries this year, and William Hendrie has three.

Eight owners enter forty-three between them in the Stanley Produce Stakes for 1901, fourteen of which are from Mr. Seagram's stud and twelve from Mr. Hendrie's.

The spring meeting at Toronto lasts seven days and is usually attended by many visitors from United States. Alfred S. Post, of New York, will officiate as judge, a position he has held ever since 1891.—Morning Telegraph.

Owners at New Orleans whose horses had won over $2,000 up to Monday were: J. W. Schorr & Son, $9,270; Bennington & Gardner, $6,121; Benson, Arthur & Co., $4,084; E. S. Gardner & Son, $3,680; J. H. Smith, $3,304; F. Reagan & Co., $3,124; W. A. Porter, $2,972; Mrs. W. W. Lyles, $2,930; P. Tomlinson & Co., $2,905; T. A. Magee, $2,670; Thomas Hurns, $2,564; Foster Bros., $2,402; Clint De Witt, $2,380; G. C. Bennett, $2,265; W. Jordan & Co., $2,253; W. T. Woodard, $2,243; G. B. Morris, $2,218; W. E. Fielding, $2,169; John Brenock, $2,165; C. T. Patterson, $2,030.

The New Orleans jockey record stood at the end of racing last Saturday as follows:

CALIFORNIA TURF NOTES.

Fleur de Lis pulled up a little lame some days ago after her work at San Francisco. It is not considered to be anything serious.

W. O'B. Macdonough is in London. He does not expect to return to California for some time.

Ostler Joe is the "iron horse" of California. He is there or thereabouts on all kinds of tracks and all distances, and must be accounted the most consistent performer at either Oakland or Ingleside.

Judson K. Moore has purchased the San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman. William G. Layng, the former proprietor, remains as editor of the paper, which is to be enlarged at once.

Hueneme, Saticoy and Ojai are full brothers. They are all named after towns in Ventura county, California.

Dan Honig has leased Magnet, the good son of St. Blaise, to Oscar Ryerson of San Mateo, California, who is doubtless the representative of Count Poniatowski.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockeys Jones and Spencer and a track follower, Ollie Johnson, are suspended and in so trouble at San Francisco. It is charged that the boys have been doing crooked riding in the interest of certain bookmakers, with Johnson as the go-between. If the officials of the California Jockey Club obtain sufficient evidence to establish the guilt of the three they should not fail to go farther and land the bookmakers concerned as well.

The California Jockey Club is reported to have concluded arrangements for the purchase of the land upon which its track is located. It is a part of the estate of the late Judge Mee and has heretofore been held by the club on a lease term of seventeen years.

Light weight jockey Stits had an arm and leg broken by a fall from Albert S while exercising the horse on the track at New Orleans Tuesday.

Mr. C. H. Pettingill has been appointed starter at the May meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club. He will probably do all the Northern Circuit starting.

Jake Marklein is reported to have resigned his position as trainer for E. S. Gardner & Son.

Winner—B. c. 4, by El Rio Rey—Fonsetta. Start good. A two-horse race. The others were outclassed. Though Vincitor was best ridden. Scarborough ran over him at the end. Scarborough is real good now. Was cut off on stretch turn. Vincitor about ran his race and is fit. A mile is about his limit in good company. Star was outclassed. He is an acrobat, but ran his race today. Tab him. Pescador got away fairly and showed some speed. He is not worth following.

Winner—Br. f, by Eolus—Ruth. Start good. Won easily. There was not much action behind the leaders at the end. The race was settled at the eighth pole. Friend was perfectly ridden and lucky. Rowena's race was not to her class or work. She had no excuses. Tab her for next. She is fit. Don't drop Mocorito either. She is ready and closed strong after being cut off on first and stretch turns. Throw out Valencienn's race. She was ridden into all the melees of the race. Saticoy and Al Koran were similarly treated. Both were good at finish. Watch them. Alarm is a dasher and a coward. Ternary was outclassed and green.

Scratched—Sadie Schwartz, 100; Abina, 100; San Durango, 102; Moringa, 102; Master Mariner, 102; Inuendo, 105; Aluminum, 107; Watomba, 105.

Winner—Br. c, 3, by Logic—Blue Stocking. Start good. Won driving hard. Linstock outclassed his field. His effort at end was caused by the trouble into which bad riding got him on the first and stretch turns. Hohenzollern ran an extra good race. He is fit. So is Masoero. But he is uncertain. Watch him. York is as bad. He had vile racing and riding luck today. The Swain was lame and short. Orimar went lame in preliminary, excused and second book made.

Scratched—Fly, 104; Earl Cochran, 104; Cromwell, 107; Orimar, 110.

Winner—Ch. h, 5, by Inverness—Wood Violet. Start good. Won easily. Drive by three horses for second place. Bland was a good horse to-day. It was a smashing race. Bland was perfectly ridden. He is fit as a fiddle, but none too sturdy. Denny ran his race and is cherry ripe. He was just outclassed and beaten by a better horse. Flashlight ran a good race under a bad finish. He closed most courageously, was cut off on the first and stretch turns and shut out completely in the back stretch. Lincoln was unlucky and badly ridden, too. Argentina is a tough form proposition. She was away badly, cut off at every corner and vilely ridden. Marplot stopped at the end after showing a lot of racing quality. Twinkler was outclassed.

Scratched—Palomacita, 88.

Start fair. Won in a long hard drive. Ireland was perhaps best. Formero beat the barrier and had clear sailing and good handling. He'll go a route and is dead game and fit. Ireland is game, fit and a distance colt too. He was well ridden. El Mido is not too reliable. He was cut off at all racing points. So were Mossbrae and Olinthus. Watch all three. They are fit. Semicolon and Rainer both ran their races. Tab the former sharply.
